

ACT ANENT THE IN- bringing of Money.

THESE OF THE COMMITTEE

poyn ding, and caption be execute against Collectours, valuers, and others who doeth not their ducie or make payment of their tenth part in manner after specified, viz.

2. Against the Collectours for not making compt, reckoning, and payment of what they have received, and giveth not in the names and roll of these who have not payed.

3. Against the Valuers for not valuing, conforme to the said act of Parliament which is either upon the Valuers oathes, or upon the Heritors oathes, or upon the Heritors declaration, under their hands, with certification: What they conceale shall be confiscat; And for not delivery of the saids valuations.

4. Against the not payers of the said tenth part, by apprehending their persons, poyn ding their owne proper goods, or poyn ding their ground.

5. And because after all ordinarie means are used, to make men pay what is due, yet such is the unwillingnesse and delaying of some, to the evil example of others, that money cometh not in to serve the present time. Therefore it is thought fit for maintenance of the Armie presently on foote, for preservation of the Religion, and liberties of this kingdome: That all those who have any moneys, and shall len the same for the publick use in moner after specified, viz. These within the Shyrefdome of Edinburgh, Haddingtoun, and Linlithgom, within foure dayes after intimation: These of the Shyrefdome of Aire, Stirling, Lanerke, Renfrew, Fyffe, Angus, Perth, Bervicke, Roxburgh, Peibles, and Selkirke, within six dayes after intimation made thereof. And siclike, these of the Shyrefdome of Aberdene, Bamsfe, Murray, and Inverness, within ten dayes after intimation: Such money as shall be so lent, shall be free of any common burthen, by detention of any part of their annuelrent, but shall have their full annuelrent free of any burthen or detention.

6. Secondly, They shall have full annuelrent from the lenning thereof, as the same shall bee received within the said spaces respective for said to the Terme of VVhissonday nexto-come as for a whole yeare, notwithstanding a good part of the Terme is past.

7. Thirdly, They shall have such securitie, as they shall please, designe, or crave themselves; So that what persons they shall craveto bind for what summe they len, shall give their personall bands for the same: And these persons who shall bind to them, shall have the whole Presbyterie or Shyre bound for their reliefe: And the Presbyterie or Shyre shall have the Estate bound to relieve or repay them.

8. And siclike, If it be tryed that any have moneys, and will not len the same; It is ordain ed that the act of Parliament bee put to execution against them, especially in that point: That all these who can bee tryed to have money, and will not len the same as said is: The Delatours and finders out, to have the one halfe, and the other halfe to be confiscat for the publicke.

9. And siclike, It is appointed, That all the Silver-worke, and Gold-worke in Scotland, as well to Burgh as Landwart, as well pertaining to Noble-men, Barrons, and Burgesses, as others of whatsoever degree and qualitye they be of, be given in to the Committee at Edinburgh, or these they shall appoint to receive the same upon such securitie for repayment as the said Committee and they shall agree at the prices following. And for this effect, The Committee of war within each Shyrefdome, and the Magistrats within each Burgh, with concurrence of the Ministerie (who must exhort and give warning out of the Pulpits to the Paroshioners) are appointed to call before them any such persons as hath any silver or gold work, that inventar may be made of the weight & spaces thereof, and securitie given for the same, with declaration alwayes. Like as it is hereby declared, That these who have any Silver or Gold worke, which they crave rather to keepe for their owne use, than deliver the same to be coyned, shall have power to redeeme the same at the prices following, viz. Fiftie six shillings for the unce of Scots silver worke, fiftie eight shillings for every unce of gold: The same beeing either produced before the Committee at Edinburgh, or before the Committee of war in each Shyrefdome, or before the Magistrats of every Burgh, and inventar made thereof, or else declared by the parties under their hands, and prices foresaid; For the which money securitie shall bee given for repayment thereof, and money presently payed at the rates and free of any burthen, as said is.

And incase any hath double gilt worke, or curious wrought worke, and can not get money to redeeme them, It is hereby declared, that the said gilt and curious worke beeing delivered to the said Committee, shall not be melted, or disposed upon better use, but shall be kept for the use of the Committee, and they shall have power to redeeme the same at the prices following: And the said silver or gold worke shall be kept in the said Committee, or in the Shyrefdome, or Presbyterie, or to the Magistrats of each Burgh, within eight dayes after intimation shall bee made thereof, either at the severall Market crosses, or by towke of Drum, or by advertisement from the Ministers out of the Pulpits: With certification, That these who shall not give in, or redeeme the said silver or gilt worke, within the said space, the same shall bee confiscated for the publicke use.
